Project Management Certification

Certifications help improve understanding while also enhancing credibility. Most common project management certificate in Malaysia is PMP (PMI, US). However Trexx Consultancy has just introduced the most basic certification: Certified Junior Project Manager (CJPM). This is a cost-efficient, low-effort & entry -level cert for those tht are new to this field.

02

Break Project Work into Manageable Chunks

Use a work breakdown structure (WBS) or agile sprints to divide big deliverables into smaller, achievable tasks. This makes tracking progress easier and helps teams stay motivated.
